Purpose:

The purpose of this onboarding policy is to provide a structured and consistent process to welcome and integrate new employees into the organization. This policy ensures that all new hires feel valued, informed, and equipped to succeed in their roles.

Scope:

This policy applies to all new employees, including full-time.

Responsibilities:

HR Department

- Send formal offer letter and onboarding package.
- Coordinate pre-employment checks (background, reference, etc.).
- Schedule Induction sessions.
- Maintain onboarding documentation.

Hiring Manager

- Prepare the workspace, equipment, and system access.
- Assign an onboarding buddy or mentor.
- Set performance expectations and initial goals.
- Introduce the new hire to team members.

IT Department

- Set up employee email, software accounts, and hardware.

- Provide training on relevant systems and tools.

5. Onboarding Process

Pre-Start (Before Day 1)

- Send welcome email with start date, time, and location.
- Complete necessary paperwork.

Day 1

- Welcome meeting with HR and manager.
- Office tour and team introductions.
- Provide company overview and mission/vision.
- Begin initial training.

First Week

- Role-specific training and job shadowing.
- Introduction to internal systems and tools.
- One-on-one meetings with key stakeholders.
- Set short-term goals and expectations.

First 30–90 Days

- Regular check-ins with manager and HR.
- Continued training and feedback.

- Performance review at 30, 60, and/or 90 days.
- Gather feedback on onboarding experience.

6. Documentation

- All onboarding forms and checklists must be completed and stored in the employee's HR file.
- Digital tools (e.g., Ms. Excel, Onboarding link) may be used to track progress.

7. Review and Evaluation

- The onboarding process will be reviewed annually for improvements.
- Employee feedback will be collected and used to optimize onboarding.
